RE: Election 2018 Message

As you know, Tuesday, November 6th 2018 is Election Day.

This year's election is another critical one for everyone in law enforcement – police officers, corrections officers, 911 dispatchers, and other public safety personnel – and for everyone who supports, values, and relies on them to keep us safe.

Regrettably, anti-law enforcement politicians are all over the ballot in New York – some openly hostile to us and others cynically hiding in stealth mode until after the election. Council 82 urges its members and their families and friends to educate themselves about the federal, gubernatorial, state, and local candidates on the ballot and to turn out to vote for those who strongly and consistently support law enforcement.

If we turn out, we can make a positive impact on election outcomes. Our futures depend on it.
